THE HOUSE ON THE COVER

No. 9720—This beautiful Roman brick veneer ranch home will provide spacious contemporary living for a happy, active family. The exterior is planned for minimum maintenance with just enough painted siding to provide some additional color. The living room was planned with the stereo hi-fi fan in mind. The music components can be placed at the far end of the room and the furniture positioned to take best advantage of both the music and the fireplace. The small private patio area in front of the dining room provides an area for quiet relaxation away from the pool area. A solar screen block wall around the pool area provides privacy for swimmers and sun bathers. The outside stairway leads to the basement where separate showers and dressing rooms are provided for both boys and girls.

COMPLETE PLANS AVAILABLE

Complete working plans, specifications and mill lists are available for every design shown in any of the GARLINGHOUSE plan books. The plans are complete and ready for the builder to start construction of the home. The moderate price of these plan sets represents your best investment when building, since you know in advance what you are getting, thus avoiding misunderstanding.

THE PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, LUMBER AND MILL LISTS as we have them made up for the designs in our books are sufficient and further details are not needed by any competent builder.

MINOR ALTERATIONS CAN BE MADE BY BUILDERS—It is impractical to change our tracings to show alterations, but minor alterations in design, material substitutions, etc., can be made by any competent builder without going to the expense of making special plans, which usually cost several times the price of our stock plans.

Complete plan sets when ordered will be mailed by parcel post (or air mail anywhere in U. S. if 75c per plan additional is included) within one day after your order has been received by The L. F. Garlinghouse Company.

TO OBTAIN COST ESTIMATES—The square footage is given for each plan to assist in figuring estimates. An estimate of what it will cost to erect any house illustrated in any of our books, in your locality, may be obtained by consulting your local builder.

ALL PLANS SENT ON MONEY BACK GUARANTEE—All Garlinghouse Plans are sent on a "Money Back If You're Not Satisfied" Guarantee. You have five full days after receiving the plans to study them over and to decide if they will serve your purpose. Plans which are not satisfactory may be returned for prompt exchange or refund.

ORDER YOUR PLANS THIS SIMPLE, EASY WAY!

USE THE HANDY ORDER BLANK ATTACHED! Or just send us your name and address with the plan number from the book and the number of sets you want along with your remittance and we'll have them in the mail within 24 hours after receipt of your order. Garlinghouse plans are complete and the house can be constructed from only one set of plans. However, in most cases, it is wise to include three or four extra sets in your order—one for the builder, a set for your city building department, a set or two for financing, if a loan is required, and of course, you will want a set for yourself to check on the construction as it progresses. Here's what you get:

PLANS—The complete working plans consist of prints of all four elevations, basement and all floor plans and details showing built-in features and intricate parts, all drawn to a scale of not less than one-fourth inch to one foot. Also, a plot plan in blank to be filled locally.

SPECIFICATIONS—The specification lists in detail (to be filled in by you and your builder) the construction of the house from the excavation to the final decoration.

LUMBER AND MILL LISTS—The lumber and mill lists consist of an itemized list of lumber and mill materials needed to construct the building and state where each item should be used.

No. 9666—This home is designed for enjoyable family living and entertaining guests. The extra large living room has a wood-burning corner-type fireplace. The kitchen is spacious and is well lighted by the corner windows. Three bedrooms and two full baths are provided. The bath with shower opens onto the pool area and into the master bedroom. The garage is large enough to house the pool filter system and also provide adequate storage space. A basement is planned under the bedroom section of the house. This provides space for utilities, additional storage space and a recreation or hobby room.

No. 9638—Privacy is the predominant feature in this attractive contemporary design. The family room has large windows for adequate light and ventilation but is shielded from the street by the beautiful cut stone wall. The living room has high windows on the front over a cut stone wall which is exposed on the inside as well as outside. The living room is sunken to further produce an air of luxury. Adequate storage space is provided in the carport.

No. 9640—A maintenance-free exterior was the prime requirement on this beautiful ranch style home. The stone veneer, aluminum windows and heavy cedar shake shingled roof will last many, many years without any care. The hipped roof eliminates all gable end painting. The aluminum windows are awning type and both sides of the glass can be cleaned from inside the house. Colorado pink stone veneer is specified but any local stone or brick can be substituted. An excellent floor plan design is provided. A corner type fireplace in the living room will provide many hours of enjoyment on cold winter evenings. The utility room provides space for a washer, dryer and freezer. The kitchen, with its built-in range and oven and plenty of cabinets, will please the most discriminating housewife.

No. 7574—This attractive split-level house is designed for a level lot. The split entry foyer is a unique feature seldom found in a split-level design. The foyer provides access to all three levels — living room area, basement and bedroom level. The bedrooms are extra large and plenty of closet space is provided. The combination half bath and laundry on the main level will also serve as a mud room. There is plenty of room for a large family in this attractive home.

No. 7594—This compact split level home is designed for comfortable family living. The large kitchen features an island type built-in range with an attractive breakfast bar attached. This breakfast bar will be adequate for the majority of family meals. The lower level contains a full bath with shower to serve the den and family room. The detached oversize garage provides plenty of exterior storage space. Being detached, the garage can be located to suit individual lot requirements. Complete plans for the garage are included with the drawings.

No. 7600—This house completely breaks with tradition in design and presents a fresh new appearance that is altogether striking and different. Not only the exterior styling but the interior plan is altogether quite contemporary. The gallery and foyer completely separate the bedroom area from the living room-kitchen-family room area. Many large closets are provided to eliminate any clothes storage problem. Skylights are strategically located in the roof to provide natural light wherever needed. The master bedroom has its own private bath and enclosed private patio.

No. 7518—Many features which add up to a well-planned home have been incorporated into this contemporary design. A beautiful two-way fireplace divides the living room and family room. Notice the absolute minimum amount of hallway. All three bedrooms have extra large closets and a bath and one-half are provided. The utility room houses the furnace and water heater and the laundry equipment. The two-car carport and storage area provides the house with privacy from the street. For outdoor entertaining there is an enclosed patio outside of the family room and an open terrace next to the living room.

No. 7630—While admiring this house, notice the pleasing low lines, the skillful blending of brick and vertical siding and the massiveness of the columns and beams over the porch. This gives the house a solid and contemporary appearance. Now as you study the floor plan note the all-around convenience. A compact, yet spacious kitchen handily serves the every-day dinette in the family room and it is also handy to the formal dining area. The generous size bedrooms with their equally generous closets should please you. There is a full private bath for the master bedroom. To further impress you is a large utility room containing furnace, water heater, washer and dryer and a closet. The large double garage gives you plenty of space for garden tool storage.

No. 7386—Very little outside maintenance will be required on this hipped roof ranch house. The brick and stone will require no care, the windows are aluminum which never need paint and there are no gable ends to varnish or paint. The floor plan is very efficiently arranged. All four corners of the living room are usable for the TV set, radio, Hi-Fi components, etc. The hall bath is close to the three bedrooms as well as the kitchen and living room. A half bath is provided for the master bedroom. The garage is extra wide and provides useful storage space for items used out of doors. Access to the concrete terrace is through sliding glass doors from the dinette.

No. 5732—A beautiful home in a beautiful setting. The sleeping quarters are located across the back of the house completely separate from the living and working areas. Many housewives prefer the kitchen and nook located as shown since most activity takes place at the front of the house and a considerable part of the day is spent in the kitchen. If the width of your lot permits, a breezeway and garage could be placed alongside the house with entrance at the side door.

No. 9682—Five bedrooms and three and one half baths are featured in this attractive ranch house. The entrance foyer provides privacy and permits access to all rooms with a minimum of cross traffic. The two-level flagstone patio is roofed with open joists providing partial shade but allowing full air circulation. The kitchen is well equipped with many built-in conveniences including a dish washer and small breakfast bar. The mud room and attached half bath will save wear and tear on the rest of the house when small children are involved. A full basement provides plenty of space for storage, utilities and recreational areas.

From the earliest times men have gathered around the open fire for warmth and fellowship, and even now we find no real substitute for the cheer of burning logs. In the firelight's glow we play and dream and work. The HEATFORM fireplace keeps the old-time open fire but also circulates heat like a furnace.

BEFORE YOU BUILD YOUR FIREPLACE
Get This Valuable Book!

It contains all the vital information you will need to build a trouble-free, smoke-free fireplace that will capture and circulate into the room, and even adjoining rooms of your home, heat lost up the chimney of the old-fashioned fireplace. Book also contains 82 beautiful fireplace designs selected from National Prizewinning Contest. Hundreds of thousands of homeowners are now enjoying the 2 to 3 times more greater heat delivery from their HEATFORM fireplaces, and assuring themselves of adequate heat in the living areas of their homes in case a power failure, due to storm or accident, should render their gas- or electrically-operated heating systems useless. ORDER YOUR BOOK TODAY . . . $1.00

No. 7400—The compact, well-arranged floor plan of this home is ideal for a family requiring only two bedrooms. The central foyer gives access to the rooms without conflict. The living room-dining room combination adds spaciousness to these areas. The kitchen is convenient to all rooms. Adequate storage space is provided in the large storage room. This factor is often neglected in basementless houses. Brick is used across the front only and while adding only a small amount to the total cost, it adds much to the exterior appearance. Access to the colorful flagstone terrace is gained through an attractive Dutch door in the dining room. Floor construction is wood joists with a crawl space below. Oak floors are specified in all rooms except the kitchen, bath and utility room where linoleum is used.

Garage	470

No. 8108—This distinctive ranch home will be the envy of the neighborhood. The outstanding exterior will certainly attract attention and the floor plan will meet the approval of the most discriminating homemaker. The rooms are extra large and arranged to eliminate unnecessary cross traffic. Placing the foyer at the end of the living room offers many possibilities for furniture groupings around the fireplace and picture window.

No. 8252—Here you find the beauty you have been thinking about and the convenience for comfortable living. The rectangular plan means economical building. The carport could easily be enclosed if desired. On the right side is a large terrace which adds to enjoyable living. The planter used to separate the dining and living rooms adds gracious effect to the long spacious area which makes possible the entertainment of a large group. The plan also calls for a basement.

No. 6360—All the best features of the ranch-style design are included in this home since the living room has front and rear exposure, bedrooms are placed to take greatest advantage of prevailing breezes and yet are completely segregated from the living quarters. Exterior emphasis favors the horizontal lines. Except for the gables, construction is of brick veneer.

No. 8132 — Truly a ranch house designed for the wide open spaces. Many outstanding features are incorporated into this beautiful home. Note the size of the various rooms particularly the living-dining room and the excellent window treatment across the entire front of the house. A planting box is used for dividing the living and dining area but does not cut down the spacious effect of the long room. The screened porch, open porch and terrace invite outdoor living.

No. 7616—This attractive split level duplex will make an excellent piece of income property. The house is well proportioned and has an excellent floor plan. The large garages have nine-foot-wide doors which easily accommodate the larger cars and offer less chance of damage by tenants. The brick veneer exterior provides less painting and exterior maintenance.

No. 5927—Every inch counts in this minimum house. Note the compact arrangement of the rooms without a crowded appearance. There is plenty of space in the kitchen for dining and ample closet and storage space has been provided.

No. 7584—Three bedrooms and one and one-half baths are featured in this small Ranch design. The "U"-shaped kitchen is compact in size but quite adequate in equipment. A full basement is provided for recreational space, storage, utilities, etc. The garage is extra large and a workshop or hobby room is provided at the rear. Construction is frame with brick veneer trim.

No. 7330—The family room is destined to be the heart of this story book style ranch house. Being rectangular in shape, this house will be economical to build. Note how the master bedroom is separated from the other bedrooms for maximum privacy. It contains a complete bathroom and a seven foot closet. The kitchen is the nucleus of this design which makes it only a few steps to any room in the house including the garage and basement. Sliding glass doors completely cover the rear wall of the family room and lead out to a colorful flagstone terrace.

No. 6150—Pictured above is a home where the family has room to really live in the living room, and note the spacious kitchen with a large breakfast bar. Yes, there is also a large dining room. Four bedrooms are located on the top level with two bathrooms, one with tub and one with shower. On the garage level immediately below the bedrooms is a family den or hobby room where young or old can enjoy life, again we find a full bath with shower. A large glassed-in porch is found on the ground level outside the living and dining room.

No. 7532—It's hard to believe that this house contains only 1,251 square feet. The exterior appearance indicates a much larger house. This is the result of careful planning. Excellently zoned, the sleeping area is separated from the living area by the entrance hall and the main bathroom. A half bath is provided for the master bedroom. A full basement provides space for utilities, storage and hobby or recreational areas.

No. 7542—This small contemporary ranch design has been raised above the grade line slightly to provide adequate light and ventilation to the basement level. This makes the basement area equally as usable as the main floor level. A four-bedroom, two-bath house is thereby provided in an area slightly over 1,000 square feet. An exposed brick wall is located between the stairway and living room. This adds an air of luxury to both the living room and the recreation room. Sliding glass doors in the living room lead to the sun deck on the side of the house.

No. 9686—This spacious contemporary home has plenty of space for the activities of children of all ages. The large family room contains a wood-burning fireplace and sliding glass doors which open onto the patio. The fireplace can be opened into the living room if preferred. A full basement provides plenty of space for storage, utilities and hobby activities. The bath behind the family room contains a shower and space for the laundry equipment. The kitchen is well equipped and contains a large breakfast area. Exterior materials consist of wide bevel siding, grooved and flush plywood and a textured shake shingle roof.

COMPLETE PLANS AVAILABLE

Garlinghouse plans are very complete, ready for your builder to begin construction immediately. They are drawn in accord with FHA and VA requirements, subject of course to local interpretations. The working drawings are liberally dimensioned. They contain drawings and notes designating the location and type of materials. With these plans, your builder can estimate accurately the cost of building the house in your area, then of course use them for the actual construction of your home.

When you order the reverse of a plan you get the same quality of drawings that you get when ordering them as shown. The lettering and dimensions are not backwards. There is no chance for errors due to an upside down plan. Garlinghouse plans will save you money.

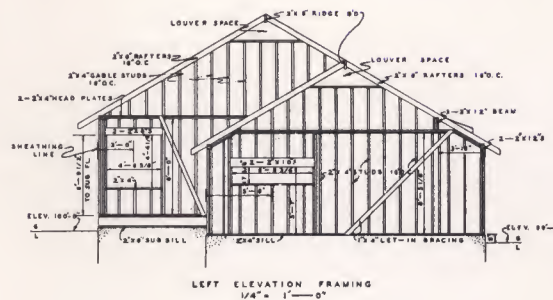

CONDITIONS, SPECIFICATIONS and CONTRACT

For Plan No. _____

All blanks in these specifications that apply to this particular building to be filled in, and all blanks and specifications which do not apply to be crossed out. Great care should be taken that all necessary information concerning the building is clearly set out in the specifications.

MATERIAL LIST

The material list includes all lumber, millwork (doors, windows, trim, etc.), roofing, masonry (concrete, brick, and stone), steel, interior wall finish, kitchen cabinets, linoleum, insulation, etc. You receive a copy of the material list with each set of plans you order.

FOUR SETS OF PLANS NEEDED

Today's building practices require at least four sets of plans, one for the builder, a set for your local building department, a set for your financial institution, and of course, you will want a set for yourself to check on the construction as it progresses. Remember, you can save money by purchasing your complete plan package of four sets.
